

Adult Education

Teaching Books & Materials

A Guide to the Literacy Council's Resources

The Adult Education Program Coordinator is available to meet with you to assist with lesson planning, selection of curriculum and supplemental materials, troubleshooting problems you & your student have, and to serve as a sounding board for you throughout your tutoring journey. Call, email or drop by the office whenever you have questions or need some help.

Wilson Reading System

The Wilson Reading System Materials available for checkout are listed below.

- The Wilson Reading System Instructor Manual
- Wilson Student Readers Books 1-12
- Wilson Sound Cards
- Wilson Syllable Cards
- Wilson Word Cards
- Wilson Magnetic Board & Letters
- Wilson Student Dictation Books
- Travels with Ted phonetically controlled reader

Hands-On Materials

Use real-life hands-on materials that are interesting and relevant to your student.

- Recipes
- Driver's license test study pamphlets (available at the DMV)
- Job applications
- Newspaper, online news, magazines
- Worksheets or books your student's kids are using in school
- GED prep materials (available at AB Tech, Literacy Council & public libraries)
- Books about sports, mechanics, famous people, current events, etc.
- Placemats or sandpaper for tracing
- Colored tiles, chips or pieces of paper for phonemic awareness activities
- Small white boards with dry erase markers
- Magnetic white boards with magnetic letters
- Wikki Stix

Phonics Readers

The Literacy Council maintains a library of phonetically controlled readers and story books.

- Flyleaf Publishing Readers
- Lithgow Palooza Readers
- Recipe for Reading Readers
- Spire Decodable Readers
- The Alphabet Series Readers

Spelling, Writing, and Vocabulary

The Literacy Council library has several spelling, writing & vocabulary books available in addition to the Wilson books.

- Angling for Words
- Dictionaries
- Franklin Spellers
- Mega Words workbooks
- Writing Skills
- Wordly Wise

Additional Resources

Additional Literacy Council resources for Adult Education students include:

- Phonics CDs
- Hooked on Phonics & tape player
- Math skills books
- GED prep materials